

Now Accepting Applications for Editor in Chief of JGR: Atmospheres

AGU is looking for a dynamic, well-organized scientist with high editorial standards and strong leadership skills to serve a 4-year term as the editor in chief for this exciting journal.

The Editor in Chief (EIC) is the principal architect of the scientific content of the journal. The EIC is an active scientist, well-known and well-regarded in his/her discipline. The EIC must be active in soliciting the best science from the best scientists to be published in the journal. Working with the other editors and AGU staff, the EIC is the arbiter of the content of the journal. Among other functions, the EIC is responsible for:

- Acting as an ambassador to the author/editor/reviewer/scientist community.
- Setting the strategy for the journal.
- Leading the editor selection process.
- Assigning and balancing review work load.
- Making decisions of ethics.
- Reviewing and contributing to periodic monitoring reports.
- Conducting and attending meetings.

If you would like to be considered for the Editor in Chief position of JGR: Atmospheres, send your curriculum vitae with a letter of interest via email to pubmatters@agu.org. If you would like to nominate a highly qualified colleague, send a letter of recommendation to the same email address. Please make sure that you specify JGR: Atmospheres in the subject line of the email.
