UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, SANTA CRUZ
DEPARTMENT OF EARTH AND PLANETARY SCIENCES
Assistant Professor in Fresh Water

The Department of Earth and Planetary Sciences (EPS) at the University of California, Santa Cruz (UCSC) invites applications for a tenure-track faculty position in Fresh Water at or near Earth's surface. We are especially interested in applicants who will develop a world class research program involving the physics and/or chemistry of hydrologic systems and processes and will complement and potentially collaborate in areas such as hydrogeology, geomorphology, atmospheric science, climate dynamics, glaciology, and/or biogeochemistry. We welcome applicants who conduct research using laboratory, field, remote sensing, and/or modeling tools. The successful applicant will have a strong commitment to teaching at both the undergraduate and graduate levels, including supervision and mentoring of graduate students. We are especially interested in applicants who can contribute to the diversity and excellence of the UCSC academic community through research, teaching, and/or service. This position is part of a cluster hire in support of the new Environmental Sciences undergraduate program at UCSC.

RANK: Assistant Professor

SALARY: Commensurate with qualifications and experience, academic year (9-month) basis
