

Colorado Science Policy Summit

October 3rd

Anschutz
Medical Campus

Are you a researcher interested in science policy?
Want to learn how to effectively engage in local policy making?

Join us at the Colorado Science Policy Summit!

At this event, participants will:

- learn about the local legislative process and bill development
- discuss how science can be integrated into policy from legislators, lobbyists, and scientists
- work with researchers from across Colorado to develop actionable science advocacy tools
