

Diversity, Equity and Inclusion: Best Practices for the National Sea Grant Network

Authors

Claire Antonucci, New Jersey Sea Grant

Marie Auyong, Guam Sea Grant

Mona Behl, Georgia Sea Grant

Diana Burich, New Jersey Sea Grant

Sam Chan, Oregon Sea Grant

Ann Faulds, Pennsylvania Sea Grant

Jane Harrison, North Carolina Sea Grant

Sara Kolesar, Oregon Sea Grant

Ed Lewandowski, Delaware Sea Grant

Susan Lovelace, South Carolina Sea Grant

Deidre Peroff, Wisconsin Sea Grant

Mary Pleasant, Oregon Sea Grant

Jen Merrill, Delaware Sea Grant

Editors

Jane L. Harrison, North Carolina Sea Grant

Emily Woodward, Georgia Sea Grant

Table of Contents

INTRODUCTION	3
WHY EMBRACE DIVERSITY, EQUITY, AND INCLUSION?	5
STRENGTHS, WEAKNESSES, OPPORTUNITIES, AND THREATS	7
TOPIC AREAS AND CASE STUDIES.....	10
 Research: Broadening Participation and Building Capacity	10
Case Study 1: Cooperative Research with Fishermen	11
 Extension: Equitably Serving our Coastal Communities	12
Case Study 2: Fish Consumption Outreach	13
 Education: Inclusive Pre-K-12 Programming	14
Case Study 3: Partnering with Community Learning Centers for Underserved Youth	15
 University Student Connections: Expanding the Next Generation Workforce	16
Case Study 4: Puerto Rico Undergraduate Education Initiative	17
Case Study 5: Expanding and Tracking Diversity Efforts for Undergraduate Summer Scholars.....	18
Case Study 6: Evaluating Diversity and Inclusion Considerations for Knauss Fellowships	19
 Environmental Justice	20
Case Study 7: Working to Sustain Culture and Environment	22
 Professional Development	23
Case Study 8: Professional Development for Free	24
 Recruiting and Retaining a Diverse Workforce	24
Case Study 9: Expanding the Applicant Pool	25
REFERENCES	28
Appendix A. Professional Development Training Resources and Facilitators	29