Share Science in Your Community

An AGU science communications workshop hosted by Climate Voices and UCAR

Thursday, June 25

9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Mesa Lab Tower B: Room 680, Mesa Lab Conference Center
1850 Table Mesa Drive, Boulder, CO

Advance Sign-up Required

Want to share your science with the public? Want to foster scientific dialogue in your community – but aren't sure how? Attend this free science communications workshop run by the American Geophysical Union (AGU).

At this hands-on workshop you'll learn how to:

- Reach out to and connect with a community group of your choosing
- Prepare clear and compelling remarks that will resonate with the public
- Practice public speaking
- Sharpen your critical listening skills

Climate Voices may be able to help you contact local groups that are interested in hosting local scientists.

Advance sign-up is required and registration is on a first-come, first-served basis.
Open to all geoscientists. Lunch will be served.
