

DO YOU WANT TO PUT YOUR DEGREE TO WORK TO ADVANCE AND HELP KEEP CALIFORNIA SAFE AND HEALTHY?

The California Dept. of Public Health (CDPH) is hiring Research Scientists & Environmental Scientists of varying levels and specialties across Richmond, Los Angeles and Sacramento to conduct research contributing to the understanding, prevention, and control of illnesses and injuries, and develop public health education and prevention programs to measure the efficiency of the health care system in reducing morbidity and mortality.

The Research Scientist classification offers specialties in: Chemical Sciences, Epidemiology/Biostatistics, Food & Drug Sciences, Microbiological Sciences, Physical/Engineering Sciences, Social/Behavioral Sciences, and Veterinary Sciences.

Minimum Qualifications:

Education and experience vary by classification. Required degrees must have been obtained from an approved US or foreign university.

Learn more about MQs for Research Scientists at bit.ly/CDPH-RS-MQs and Environmental Scientists at bit.ly/CDPH-ES-MQs.

Research & Environmental Scientist Levels* and Monthly Salaries:

Research Scientist I	$6,512 - $8,093
Research Scientist II	$7,152 - $8,889
Research Scientist III	$7,811 - $9,777
Research Scientist IV	$8,980 - $11,242
Research Scientist Manager	$12,465 - $14,154
Research Scientist Supervisor I	$8,984 - $11,196
Research Scientist Supervisor II	$10,615 - $13,225
Environmental Scientist (Ranges A-C)	$4,145 - $7,926
Environmental Program Manager I (Supervisory)	$11,598 - $14,418
Senior Environmental Scientist (Specialist)	$7,336 - $9,126
Senior Environmental Scientist (Supervisory)	$10,030 - $12,469

*Research Scientist II, III, IV, V; Research Scientist Supervisor I & II and Research Scientist Manager (all specialties): Incumbents in one of these classifications, where a Master's Degree is required to meet the minimum qualifications, shall receive an educational pay differential equivalent to 2% of their monthly base pay. Those where a Doctoral Degree is required to meet the minimum qualifications, shall receive an educational pay differential equivalent to 3% of their monthly base pay. Individuals with both a Master's and Doctoral Degree will be given the best benefit in relation to salary.

*Research Scientist Supervisor II and Research Manager (all specialties): Incumbents in one of these classifications, who have evidence of being accepted for an examination for a Medical Specialty Certificate or Osteopathic Specialty Certificate shall receive 15.5% of monthly base salary. Incumbents in one of these classifications, who have evidence of being certified by an American Medical Specialty Board or American Osteopathic Specialty Board will receive 19.0% of monthly base salary.

Need help applying? Register for virtual info sessions on Feb. 15 (Research Scientist Series) & Feb. 16 (Environmental Scientist Series) at 12pm or 5:30pm PST: bit.ly/CDPH-How-To-Apply!

LEARN MORE & APPLY NOW AT BIT.LY/CDPH-SCIENTIST-JOBS!

